

met at senior citizen's<sup>2</sup> center. She is a devout Methodist and ~~was~~<sup>was</sup> like Jo, a secretary. I know very well I can not replace Josephine and am not trying, but need the companionship which this relationship affords. I have known her one month and have met some of her children and grand children as well as friends. Am I doing wrong to do this? I know it used to be said you should wait a year. But a year at 70 is like 5 yrs at 30. Jo and I often discussed what the survivor should do and agreed this was right. May I hear from you your friend Larry.
